

Vedanta Institute London

Privacy Policy

Purpose

The purpose of Vedanta Institute London ("VIL") Privacy Policy (the "Policy") is to ensure VIL's commitment to processing personal data in accordance with its responsibilities under the UK General Data Protection Regulation ("UK GDPR") and the Data Protection Act 2018.

This Policy will be implemented in conjunction with other VIL policies and is intended to support the goals and strategies contained in those related policies and VIL's strategic and operational plans.

Definitions and Scope

VIL is a charity registered in England & Wales (number 1102168) benefiting communities particularly in the UK and Europe, although not exclusively. It is governed by a Charitable Trust Deed and its current trustees (jointly the 'Trustee Board'). The Managing Trustee has delegated responsibility from the Trustee Board for VIL's day-to-day activities and coordinating the work of staff and volunteers.

VIL's charitable objects are: "Advancing the education of the public in the philosophy and practice of Vedanta and its practical applications in life".

VIL works towards social upliftment by providing education on the fundamental principles of life and living. VIL organises and conducts community classes, retreats, introductory talks and public lectures, makes grants, sells books, to create awareness on the importance of self management and provides the technique of self improvement without any distinction or demarcation.

Overall responsibility for monitoring and review of this Policy lies with the Trustee Board. Implementation of this Policy is the responsibility of the Managing Trustee.

The UK GDPR is the retained EU law version of the General Data Protection Regulation ((EU) 2016/679) (EU GDPR) as it forms part of the law of England and Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland by virtue of section 3 of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 and as amended by
